Chicago Tribune.

VOL. XX. CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1866. NUMBER 12.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Another Veto Message from the President.

Changes in the Tax Bill Recommended by the Senate Finance Committee.

CONGRESS.

Paris Exposition Bill Passed by the Senate.

Gov. Humphrey's Report on the Condition of the Mississippi Levees.

House Committee Appointed to Investigate the Grinnell-Rousseau Affair.

River and Harbor Bill Submitted to a Committee of Conference.

Hon. Jos. W. Patterson Elected U.S. Senator from New Hampshire.

THE FENIANS.

The Canadian Authorities Still Alarmed.

Bombastic Challenge from a Fenian Officer.

PRESIDENT ROBERTS AGAIN AT LIBERTY.

Gold Closed in New York at 143.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, June 15.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 15.

SENATE.

Mr. HOWARD, from the Committee of Claims, reported back the bill for the relief of Mrs. Surratt, the widow of the conspirator hanged for the murder of President Lincoln, with a recommendation that it do not pass.

Mr. CLARK, from the Committee on Finance, reported back the House bill to amend the internal revenue laws, with sundry amendments.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported back the House bill to amend the act to provide for the payment of certain stocks held in trust for the Creek Indians, with an amendment.

Mr. HOWARD called up the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the claim of the State of Georgia for the services of the militia.

Mr. HOWARD called for the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the claim of the State of Georgia for the services of the militia.

Mr. HARRIS offered an amendment making it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to withhold from the claim such sums as may be found due the United States from the State of Georgia.

Mr. STEWART demanded the yeas and nays on the amendment, which were ordered, and resulted—yeas 19, nays 21, as the Senate refused to agree to the amendment.

Mr. DOOLITTLE moved to amend the bill by striking out the enacting clause.

The question was taken by yeas and nays, and resulted—yeas 21, nays 19, as the Senate refused to strike out the enacting clause.

The amendment was then agreed to.

Mr. HARRIS moved to amend the bill by striking out the enacting clause.

The question was taken by yeas and nays, and resulted—yeas 21, nays 19, as the Senate refused to strike out the enacting clause.

The amendment was then agreed to.

Mr. HOWARD

ROOM

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

MARINE LIST.

WOMAN.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU.

Chicago Tribune.
SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1865.

THE CITY.

THE BOULEVARD are smoothed from standing on the west morning telling day, owing to a pause of the rain.

SOME RAIN.—The match between the Atlantic No. and Number four ball club, will take place on Chicago common south of Twelfth street.

CITY MARSHAL.—A special meeting of the members of the Lumber Army No. 1 will be held this afternoon at half past two o'clock, at the northern portion of the Fifth Ward Engine House, on Chicago avenue.

WARNER HAVE.—On Wednesday night the Chicago Light Infantry will parade with the Chicago Zouaves, which will further intend out of Firehouse river. The Drum Lost her midnight hour and a fine time was expected.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A horse which was hitched to a cart, got frightened on Thursday afternoon and ran with great speed through River street, collided with a carriage, throwing the driver of which against his breast and instantly killed him.

THANKS.—The Governor General of Canada, has kindly transmitted his thanks to the Chicago Committee, as in the hour of their sufferings's invention by an elegant note, particularly tendering their services to the Lord mayor to aid in quelling the disturbance.

MASONIC.—The committee appointed by the Oriental, Hiram and Widemark Lodges, are requested to meet at the Masonic Hall, on Clark street, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock, upon the propriety of the erection of a new Masonic Hall.

THE ROCK ISLAND PASS RAILROAD.—The Rock Island Pass Railroad Company, will hold their annual meeting at the office in this city, on Tuesday next. Considering the fact that many interested in the road, got up in the meantime for the purpose of the meeting, a full attendance is looked for by the friends of the enterprise.

MASONIC DISPUTE.—All worthy gentlemen interested in the formation of the proposed new Masonic Institute, are requested to meet this evening, at the corner of Randolph and Dearborn streets, to discuss the subject. It is expected that the Chicago Lodge of Perfection will be present, and that the matter will be fully discussed. Let there be a full meeting, as it is an important matter, and the prospects are flattering.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS.—In case of Edward Thyer, charged with taking fifty dollars in money, from a trunk belonging to Miss Cleary, No. 207 Dearborn street, was heard, and the accused before Justice Sullivan, in the Police Court this morning. The evidence was not sufficient to hold the prisoner, and he was discharged. Thyer told the complainant he was English.

THE FIRST SHAPE COLLAR.—We call the attention of our readers to the Rock Island Shape Collar, now for sale by Mr. W. R. Rogers, No. 166 Dearborn street, who is agent. The collar is taking immense with all who have tried it, and is pronounced by the ladies to be the best collar in the market. The Rock Island Shape Collar is not to be worn to be liked and soon.

THE FIRST MURDER.—George Turner, a young man about fifteen years of age, is charged with the murder of a child of Isaac Rosenthal, on Thursday last. The child was found in the basement of the house of Mr. Rosenthal, on Clark street, near Van Buren, on Thursday last, and the boy Turner was arrested on suspicion of having committed the murder. It is said he took the child into the basement, and there killed it. The boy is only 10 years old, and is said to be very much addicted to bad habits.

ALLEGED LARCENY OF FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS.—Patrick, or sometimes called Peter Dunn, a boy about fifteen years of age, was brought before Justice Morrison, charged with stealing four hundred dollars in money, from a trunk belonging to Miss Mary Ann Dunn, on Wednesday night, the 7th inst. Bernard English, arrested at the Fenian camp on West Lake street, testified that he saw the prisoner, on the night in question, take the money from the trunk. The prisoner, in his own defense, stated that he found the money, and that he did not know what it was. He was committed to the County Jail, in default of bail, to await his trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

THE FENIAN CAMP.—The camp on West Lake street, was visited by a large number of persons during the day, and in the evening the camp was illuminated with a large number of candles, which rendered the appearance of the camp very beautiful. The camp will remain for a few days, and will be open to visitors during the day.

THE FENIAN CAMP.—The camp on West Lake street, was visited by a large number of persons during the day, and in the evening the camp was illuminated with a large number of candles, which rendered the appearance of the camp very beautiful. The camp will remain for a few days, and will be open to visitors during the day.

A WORTHY OBJECT.—Admirable arrangements are being made for the grand Fenian Picnic, which is to come off on the Fair Ground, on Thursday next. The proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of the widow and children of the late Thomas Devine, who was killed in the Fenian affair at Ridgeway. He left the town behind him a wife and seven children, all of whom are in need of assistance, and it is hoped that the picnic will be largely attended.

A WORTHY OBJECT.—Admirable arrangements are being made for the grand Fenian Picnic, which is to come off on the Fair Ground, on Thursday next. The proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of the widow and children of the late Thomas Devine, who was killed in the Fenian affair at Ridgeway. He left the town behind him a wife and seven children, all of whom are in need of assistance, and it is hoped that the picnic will be largely attended.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning, a man named Thomas Hayes, while engaged in unloading a scow, fell into the river, and was drowned. He was employed by Mr. Jay Gould, of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad Company, and was engaged in unloading a scow of coal, when he fell into the river. The only witness found in the neighborhood was a boy named Patrick Mahon, who was also employed by Mr. Gould. He was engaged in unloading the coal, when he saw Hayes fall into the river. He ran to the assistance of the drowning man, but was too late. Hayes was a married man, and has a family residing on Canal street.

SALES PREVENTED.—One Myers, (colored) was brought before Justice Morrison, charged with selling liquor without a license. The evidence showed that the prisoner had been selling liquor in his house, which was situated on Clark street, near Van Buren, and that he had been warned by the police to desist from the sale, but had refused to do so. He was committed to the County Jail, in default of bail, to await his trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning, a man named Thomas Hayes, while engaged in unloading a scow, fell into the river, and was drowned. He was employed by Mr. Jay Gould, of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad Company, and was engaged in unloading a scow of coal, when he fell into the river. The only witness found in the neighborhood was a boy named Patrick Mahon, who was also employed by Mr. Gould. He was engaged in unloading the coal, when he saw Hayes fall into the river. He ran to the assistance of the drowning man, but was too late. Hayes was a married man, and has a family residing on Canal street.

SALES PREVENTED.—One Myers, (colored) was brought before Justice Morrison, charged with selling liquor without a license. The evidence showed that the prisoner had been selling liquor in his house, which was situated on Clark street, near Van Buren, and that he had been warned by the police to desist from the sale, but had refused to do so. He was committed to the County Jail, in default of bail, to await his trial at the next term of the Criminal Court.

AMERICAN SHARPSHOOTERS' FESTIVAL.

Third Days' Proceedings—Seeking for the Old Fishing Ground—Travelling.

The Shooting Yesterday—List of Successful Contestants.

Yesterday, the third day of the Sharpshooters' festival, was devoted to target practice, and the shooting was very good. The weather was very favorable for the sport, and a large number of persons were present. The following is a list of the successful contestants, with the number of points made by each:

[illegible] Wm. Hoffman, 5; Wm. Hoffman, 5; Wm. Hoffman, 5;